

Graduate fellowships available

PDK is accepting applications for its graduate fellowships to support Kappans who are pursuing graduate degrees.

Deadline for applications is June 1, 2017. Applications are available online at <http://pdkintl.org/programs-resources/scholarships-awards/graduate-fellowships/>

The fellowships and awards are available to members in good standing who are seeking degrees at the master's, specialist, and doctoral levels.

Gifting cartoons

Send your staff off for the summer with a book to lighten their spirits.

PDK's cartoon books make excellent and affordable end-of-the-year gifts for teachers and principals. Choose from four titles: Learning Curves, Classroom Management, My Homework Ate My Dog, and Head of the Class. Each book is $9.95 plus shipping.

To place a single or a bulk order, call PDK's member services office at 800-766-1156.

Write for Kappan

Kappan editors are already thinking ahead to the topics that will be most valuable to you during the next school year (2017-18) and are inviting writers to submit manuscripts that we can consider for publication.

Themes for next year will include:

Please pay attention	Due July 1
The blurry boundary between high school and college	Due Aug. 1
Civility, controversy, and persuasion	Due Sept. 1
Community schools	Due Oct. 1
The online lives of children	Due Nov. 1
Beyond teachers and principals	Due Dec. 1
Power and influence in schools and statehouse	Due Jan. 1, 2018

More detailed explanations of each theme and submission guidelines are available at www.kappanonline.org/writers-guidelines/
